

and to do all the work, and to make the world better for all men. And so it was that the people of the world came to know that Jesus Christ was indeed the Son of God, and that he had come to save all mankind.