

a Pewter Coin 2 Ins diam. a Figure erect with a Helmet - Right hand a Spear - left hand a Knot or Cord from which suspended ^{4 Shields being} the Arms of 4 Crowns Viz. 1 England - On the Right 2 - three fleur de Lis (France) below on the Right 3 A Lion Rampant with a Sword in the right Paw - ~~4~~ grasping a bundle of Arrows in the other - 4 - a Shield with a Lion Rampant at ~~each~~ two opposite Corners of the Shield the other two are confused - ~~the~~ at the Bottom is a detached Shield as if lying on the Ground unconnected with the other Four - the figure appears to be a large Head covering the whole Field round the inner Edge is Communi consensu. 1789 stamped on their side by Rule -

On the other side is a handsome Figure in Robes sitting in in an arm'd Chair ~~resting~~ ^{sprinkled with fleur de Lis} resting on a raised Step sprinkled also with Fleur de Lis - ~~for~~ the left hand pointing to a Pillar with a Cap of Liberty on it - a female Figure in light Robes is hanging up a Shield on the Pillar having 13 Stripes - round the inner Edge - the Motto Libertas Americana 1783 - 1789 stamped

a Copper (Inch) Coin a Star radiating with 13 small Stars between the points of the Rays - the motto nova constellatio - on the other side a ~~some~~ circular wreath with the Letters US - the Motto Libertas ~~et~~ et Justitia 1785 - 1789 stamped

a Copper (large Inch) Coin a Shield with 13 Stripes - the Motto e pluribus unum - on the Reverse a Plow with a Nape head over it - the Motto nova Casarea - 1787 - 1789 stamped a Copper (Inch) Coin a Head ^{in the manner of} like the King George 2 Coin the motto auctori: Correc: on the Reverse a Female Figure in the manner of Britannia - the Shield bare the motto Inde not put in being imperfect - a George 3 - half penny 1773 stamped 1789

(Inch) Copper Coin - on one side a spread Eagle with Massachusetts on the inner Circle date 1788 - on the Reverse an Indian with a bow & arrow in left hand motto Common wealth - stamped 1789

(Inch) Copper Coin - a Casars Head on one side with - Vermont, auctori: on the inner Circle - on the Reverse a Figure like Britannia date 1788 motto - Inde: et Lib: - stamped 1789

(1 3/4 Inch) a Medal - Roman Head of Gen Washington - round the inner Edge. G. Washington General of the Continental Army in America - On the Reverse Trophie - Colours Cannon Mortar Trumpet & rays shooting out all round washin: reunit parun par un rare Assemblage les Talens du Guerrier les Vertus des du Sage

ter
as

[Faint, illegible handwriting in cursive script, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

No. 2, Account of the skull.

7439.5.56

A copy of the inscription which was given on the Foundation Stone, and an Account of the bones, &c. which were deposited with the stone, August 31, 1789. —