

Sir

London April 7th 1790 -

Understanding that the Library Company of Philadelphia intend to fix upon a different place for the building of a library, as a more convenient situation than the lot ^{near the} ~~near the~~ 9th street, we beg to intimate to you our compliance with their requisition, made through D^r Parke, for power to sell that lot. You may therefore consider any mode which you together agree on the expediency of, for confirming their title, as having the sanction of our
