so long live. And it was further provided by a declaration in the handwriting of the said Testator bearing date the 9th day of August 1864 appended to the said Deed of Trust as follows_ "The sum that I have left in the above Trust to my daughters Sidney and Eliza at the present value of currency will not support them. I di:rect and order my Trustees to pay the same in gold or its equiv:elant" That the account of said Petitioners was duly filed and the report of the Auditor thereon was filed and duly confirmed July 5. 1867. That said Sidney E. Hutchinson and Eliza Hutch:inson accepted service, were acquainted with and acquiesced in its provisions. That the aggregate of the awards made by the Audi:tor to the Trustees for said Sidney E. and Eliza Hutchinson was $37.841.37 [being the equivelant of Gold less the Collateral and United States Taxes previously advanced by said Executors] which said sum he ordered to be set apart and paid over by the Ex:ecutors into the hands of said Trustees. The said Auditor also ordered the sum of $6.995 to be set apart by said Executors to secure the annuity of $360. given to Mrs. Frances Lewis which said sums had been set apart for and paid over to the said Trus:tees. That all the debts of the said Testator had been paid And praying the said Court that a citation might be issued to the parties in interest to show cause why, upon the said fund being so specifical:ly set apart the whole Real Estate of the said Testator of which he died siezed and possessed should not be discharged and exonrated in the hands of any bona fide holder of the said Real Estate for a valuable consideration from all and every the lien or charge of any and every the foregoing annuities and Legacies, Covenants, stip:ulations and Declarations of Trust.

The said Frances Lewis, Sidney E. Hutchinson and Eliza Hutch:inson signifying their consent by joining in said petition.

Whereupon the said Court the same day granted the prayer of said Petitioners And ordered the said Securities set apart as aforesaid and that all Real Estate of decedent be discharged from lien of said Annuities &c in said Will and Deed of Trust