case they shall respectively remain in my service until the day of my death, and in the service of my executor at the same rate of wages which they receive from me, so long as he may require them to do so.

Eleventh.—I give and bequeath to Mrs. Catharine Souder, widow of Jacob Souder, deceased, an annuity or yearly sum of two hundred dollars, to be paid to her half-yearly, so long as she shall continue a widow.

Twelfth.—I give and bequeath unto Thomas Craven, who has been for many years the faithful agent of my estate, an annuity or yearly sum of six hundred dollars, to be paid to him half-yearly for and during his life.

Thirteenth.—I give and bequeath unto Miss Caroline Little and her sister, Mrs. S. H. Spruill, and to the survivor of them, an annuity or yearly sum of eighteen hundred dollars, to be paid to them and to the survivor of them, so long as they or either of them shall continue unmarried; and if either of them should marry after my death, then the whole of the said annuity shall be paid to the other, so long as she shall continue unmarried, as aforesaid.

Fourteenth.—I give and bequeath unto Miss Mary Ritchie, the sister of Captain Ritchie, U. S. Navy, an annuity or yearly sum of one thousand dollars, to be paid to her half-yearly, so long as she shall remain single and unmarried.

Fifteenth.—I give and bequeath unto each of my nephews and nieces, Benjamin, Maria S., Catharine, and Richard H. Rush, children of my brother the late Richard Rush, an annuity or yearly sum of three hundred and sixty dollars, to be paid half-yearly to each of my said nephews for and during their natural lives, and to each of my said nieces so long as they respectively shall continue single and unmarried without any survivorship. These several annuities, with one of a similar amount which I intended to have given to their brother, the late J. Murray Rush, make together the sum of eighteen hundred dollars per annum, which I designed for the children left by my brother Richard Rush.

Sixteenth.—I give and bequeath unto my niece Mrs. Georgiana Clark, wife of E. A. Clark, Esq., and daughter of my sister, Mrs. Emily Cuthbert, of Lanoraie, Canada East, an annuity or yearly sum of eighteen hundred dollars, to be paid to her half-yearly, so long as she shall continue the wife or widow of her present husband.

Seventeenth.—I give and bequeath unto my nephew Major Robert Manners, and to my niece Julia Manners, children of my sister Mrs. Mary Manners, now residing near Rochester, Kent, England, annuities
