WILLIAMS, my executor, in my said last will named, his heirs, executors and administrators in trust therewith, to found and endow a public library entirely distinct from and independent of the Philadelphia Library Company, to be named and called the Ridgway Library, under the rules, regulations, conditions and stipulations in my said last will, and the codicils thereto expressed and contained. I wish that the greater part of my estate may be spent in completing the new library building. The annuities as they expire and fall into my residuary estate will be amply sufficient for all the legitimate purposes of a library.

Ninth. By my last will and testament hereinbefore referred to (dated February 26, 1860), I have given, bequeathed, and devised my whole estate, real and personal, unto HENRY J. WILLIAMS, my executor, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, in trust; in the first place to provide for, pay, and comply with all legacies, gifts, annuities, bequests and devises, declarations and intentions which may be contained or expressed in any codicil to the said last-mentioned will and testament, which I might thereafter make, to be signed by
