

glad that the remains of the late Jacob Ridgway, of his daughter, my late wife, and of myself, should be removed to the new library building, when it is completed, and be placed in some spot within the outward limits of the building, under a plain and simple tablet. The library 5 itself is intended for their monument, and I want none for myself. If, however, the parties interested in the ground in which my father-in-law is buried should object to his removal, then I desire that my wife and myself 10 may be placed in the new library building as above directed. The library will then be her monument, and I desire to lie by her side.

Twenty-fifth. And I further will and direct that if any of the devisees or legatees or annuitants herein named shall attempt, themselves, or aid, assist, or encourage 15 others to question, dispute, litigate, or object to the validity or effect of any part or portion of my will, or any codicil thereto, or of any gift or devise therein mentioned, then, and in that case, all the clauses in my said will or any codicil thereto conferring any benefit upon the 20 person or persons aforesaid shall stand and be revoked and annulled, and the same shall be paid and given over to the said Library Company.

Twenty-sixth. Events and circumstances occurring within the last six years have obliged me to make several 25 changes in my will, and I should have preferred that all my testamentary dispositions should have appeared as a complete whole, instead of being contained in separate
