

THE PAMPHLETS IN THIS VOLUME CONCERN THE FOLLOWING MATTERS:

Pamphlets 1-9 inclusive concern the Bill in Equity brought by the Library Company vs. Henry J. Williams (Executor u/w of Dr. James Rush) which asked that Williams be disqualified from serving as Trustee, because he had surrendered his discretion by a promise to testator, and that the trust be taken over by the Court. This bill, granted below, led on appeal to the decision, in Williams' favor, set forth in Williams' Appeal, 73 Pa. 249.

1. The Bill in Equity brought by the Library Co. v. Williams. See the relief prayed for on pages 26-27.
2. The Answer of Williams. Note the matter on page 13 and the matters to which Williams demurred on page 24.
3. The testimony taken and the exhibits offered before the Master appointed by the Court.
4. The Master's report. See page 36 et seq. for a statement of effects and page 57 et seq. for the discussion as to the demurrer. The decree recommended by the Master (he found that Williams had disqualified himself) is found on page 87, and defendant's exceptions are set forth on page 91.
5. Paper Book and Brief of appellant Williams in his appeal to the Supreme Court. The opinion of the Court below appears on page 25, and the decree is on page 33, it being that proposed by the Master.
6. Additional Brief in Supreme Court of appellant Williams.
