

7. Additional Brief in Supreme Court of appellant Williams.
8. Brief of appellees in Supreme Court.
9. Extract from Legal Gazette of May 23, 1873 giving the opinion of Agnew, J. which reversed the Court below and found that Williams had not disqualified himself. For this case see 73 Pa. 249.

Pamphlets 10-15 inclusive concern the Bill in Equity brought in C.P. 2 by the Library Company vs. Donohugh, Collector of Delinquent Taxes of the City of Philadelphia. The decision, in favor of the complainant company, was appealed by Donohugh and led to the decision, again in favor of the Company, found in 5 Norris 306, which is 86 Pa. 306. For the case below, see 12 Philadelphia, 284.

10. The Bill in Equity filed by the Company. For the prayer, see pages 8 and 9.
11. Complainant's Brief.
12. Paper Book of Defendant Donohugh.
13. Appeal of Donohugh to Supreme Court. The decree of the Court below appears on page 5. See particularly page 17, in which it was found that the Library Company was exempt as an Institution of Learning.
14. Brief of Library Company, appellee.
15. Removed from this volume and sent to the Internal Revenue Commissioner in October, 1922. Reference is made to a duplicate. This pamphlet apparently contained the opinion of the Court below, affirmed in the Supreme Court. This case is reported in 86 Pa. 306.

