

degree to usurp any of your rights, and provided ages - but was actuated solely by the reasons he has set forth

He prays that in your consideration of his petition, this act of his, may not render your determination adverse to granting the privilege desired by him, - but on the other hand, he prays that you may grant to him the privilege which he herein humbly and earnestly solicits

And he will ever remain

Your most obedient servant

William S. Parburton.

