

title and interest in all the real estate situate in Pennsylvania and Delaware of which the said Rachel Levy inter alia died seized and possessed, unto the said John J. Milligan, Elise Milligan and Lophie Carroll Milligan as to one fourth part thereof; to Robert Milligan as to one fourth part thereof, to Mary L. Milligan as to one fourth part thereof and to Martha E. Milligan as to the remaining one fourth part thereof. The title to the said yearly ground rent thus being vested in the said grantors. And by divers good conveyances and assurances in the law duly had and obtained the said lot of ground, out of which the said yearly rent is payable, became duly vested in The Library Company of Philadelphia, as by reference to the said recited Indentures and the records will more fully and at large appear].

of Fortyfour Spanish milled silver dollars hereditaments and premises hereby granted, and extinguished and intended as to be, with the rights, remedies, incidents, and appurtenances, unto the said The Library Company of Philadelphia its Successors and Assigns, to and for the only proper use and behoof of The Library Company of Philadelphia its Successors
and Assigns, forever.