

on producing the book to the Librarian, renew his note for the like time.

III. Every person, not being a member, who shall hire a book, &c., shall first give a note for double the value thereof, in the same manner, and be subject to the same regulations, as a member; and shall also deposit, as security, in the hands of the Librarian, double the value of such book or books; but if the book or books should belong to a set, then such person shall deposit treble the value of the volume or volumes which he shall so take out.

IV. Every member, or other person, who shall take out a book or books on hire, shall pay, for the use of the Library, the following rates, weekly: For Duodecimos and Octavos, two-sixteenths of a dollar; Quartos, three-sixteenths of a dollar; and Folios, four-sixteenths of a dollar; and no smaller sum, although the book may be returned within the week.

V. Every member, or other person, who shall neglect to return the book or books within the time specified in the second rule, shall, for such neglect, pay to the Librarian, for the use of the Library (besides the hire, where the book is not taken out by virtue of a share), two sixteenths of a dollar per week; and if not returned, undefaced, within one month from the expiration of the time limited in the note, the fines and hire accruing thereupon shall be doubled; and if not so returned within three months from the same period, the note or deposit money shall be forfeited to the company.

VI. Books returned are to be delivered into the hands of the Librarian to be examined, whether damaged or not.

VII. No person from whom any hire or forfeiture is due, or who hath damaged any book, shall be permitted to have another book till satisfaction be made.

VIII. If a member, and one who is not a member, should apply for the same book at the same time, the member shall have the preference.
