

CONSTITUTION OF KANSAS, A. D. 1859.

All property used exclusively for State, county, municipal, literary, educational, scientific, religious, benevolent and charitable purposes, shall be exempted from taxation.

Article XI., section 1.

ACT (GENERAL STATUTES).

SECTION 3. The property described in this section, to the extent herein limited, shall be exempt from taxation.

First.—All buildings used exclusively as places of public worship, as public school-houses or both, with the furniture and books therein contained, used exclusively for the accommodation of schools or religious meetings, together with the grounds occupied thereby, not exceeding in any one case ten acres, if not leased or otherwise used with a view to profit.

Third.—All buildings belonging to scientific, literary or benevolent institutions used exclusively for scientific, literary or benevolent purposes, together with the lands, not exceeding forty acres, occupied by such institutions, if not leased or otherwise used with a view to profit; and all books, papers, furniture, apparatus and instruments belonging to such association, and used exclusively for scientific, literary and benevolent purposes.

Fourth.—All moneys and credits belonging exclusively to universities, colleges, academies or public schools of any kind, or to religious, literary, scientific or benevolent institutions or associations appropriated solely to sustain such institutions or associations, not exceeding in amount or in income arising therefrom the limit prescribed by the charter of such institution or association.

Eleventh.—All public libraries.

Twelfth.—Family libraries and the school books of every person and family, not exceeding in value in any one case $100 for each person or family.

General Statutes of Kansas (1863), page 1020.

