Manners

vs.

Henry J. Williams and The Library Company of Philadelphia.

December Term, 1877.

No. 1319.

THE SEPARATE DEMURRER OF THE DEFENDANT, THE LIBRARY COMPANY OF PHILADELPHIA, TO THE BILL
OF COMPLAINT OF ROBERT MANNERS, THE ABOVE COMPLAINANT.

The said defendant, by protestation, &c., demurs to the whole of the complainant's bill, so far as relief against it is concerned, and for causes of demurrer shows as follows:—

1. It appears by the complainant's own showing in his said bill that he, the said complainant, is not the sole heir
at law of James Rush, the testator in the said bill named,
but that there are other heirs at law of the said testator
whom the complainant has not made parties to the said bill, nor has he stated any sufficient excuse for their nonjoinder.
