that the said Henry J. Williams be decreed to be the trustee thereof for your orator, and the other heirs at law of said Dr. James Rush, deceased.

Sixth.—That the residuary estate and increase of the whole estate since the death of Dr. James Rush, may be declared to be in your orator, according to his share thereof, under the Intestate Laws of Pennsylvania, and that the said Henry J. Williams, Esq., be decreed to be the trustee thereof for your orator and the other heirs at law of the said Dr. James Rush, deceased, and to account therefor accordingly.

Seventh.—That the said Henry J. Williams, Esq., may be compelled to make a full and true disclosure and discovery of the real estate, and where the same is situated, and of all ground rents, of which the said Dr. James Rush died seised, and may be compelled to account to your orator for the personal estate, rents of the real estate, and interest on the ground rents and mortgages collected and received by him, and for all other receipts by him, from the real and personal estate and ground rents, of which the said Dr. James Rush died seised.

Eighth.—That the said Henry J. Williams, Esq., may be decreed to execute and deliver a release to your orator of any interest he may claim in the real estate and ground rents of which the said Dr. James Rush died seised, for the purpose of removing any cloud which may exist upon the title of your orator by reason of the admission of said writings to probate; and that he may be decreed to deliver to your orator the searches, briefs-of-title, deeds, ground rent deeds, mortgages, and all papers relating to the estate of which said Dr. James Rush died seised.

Ninth.—That the said Henry J. Williams, Esq., may be restrained by preliminary, and hereafter by perpetual, injunc-
