Copy of alleged Will and Codicils referred to in the foregoing Bill as

"Exhibit A."

WILL OF JAMES RUSH, M. D.

Be it remembered:—That I, James Rush, of the City of Philadelphia, M. D., do make this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all others by me heretofore made, in manner following—that is to say:—

I will and direct that all my just debts, which will be found very few in number, and insignificant in amount, shall be paid by my executor as soon as possible.

It is my intention, by a Codicil, or Codicils, to this my Will, to give considerable legacies, annuities and devises to different persons, but as I desire to take some time for reflection on this subject, and as I have made up my mind as to
