

the disposition of my residuary estate after the payment of these legacies, annuities, and devises; now, therefore, I do hereby give, bequeath, and devise my whole estate, real and personal, legal and equitable, whatsoever and wheresoever the same may be, unto my brother-in-law, HENRY J. WILLIAMS, of the City of Philadelphia, his heirs and assigns, to be held by him for and upon the following trusts and purposes, and for and upon no other use, trust, or purpose whatever—that is to say:—

In trust, after paying, providing for, and complying with all legacies, annuities, gifts, bequests, and devises, declarations, and intentions which may be contained and expressed in any Codicil or Codicils to this, my last Will and Testament, which I may hereafter make, (to be signed by me at the end thereof,) whether the same be formally drawn or not; to have and to hold the whole residue and remainder of my estate, real and personal, whatsoever and wheresoever the same may be, for the following uses and purposes, viz:—

In trust, to select and purchase a lot of ground, not less than one hundred and fifty feet square, situate between Fourth and Fifteenth and Spruce and Race streets, in the City of Philadelphia, and thereon to erect a fire-proof building sufficiently large to accommodate and contain all the books of "The Library Company of Philadelphia," (whose library is now at the corner of Fifth and Library streets,) and to provide for its future extension, according to plans, directions, and specifications, which I shall hereafter make or give; but if I should not make or leave any such plans, directions, or specifications, then to erect the same according to his best judgment, and to the views which I have expressed to him. It is my wish that this building should be exceedingly sub-
