Manners,

vs.

Williams, et al.

C. P. No. 1.

Dec. T., 1877.

No. 1,319.

In Equity.

And now, April 5, 1878, the plaintiff files this additional Amendment to his Bill, by adding to paragraph X, (page 6,) the following words:—

And the plaintiff charges that the works directed by the said Dr. James Rush to be published "every ten years, and earlier and oftener, if called for," in the paper writing dated April 18, 1867, contain infidel and atheistical sentiments, teachings and arguments, and that said works deny the truths of the Christian religion, and of revelation, and the existence of a God; and the plaintiff charges that the effect of carrying out and executing said trust would be the propagation of infidel and atheistical doctrines, and would be contrary to good morals and to law.

And your orator charges that, for this reason, the residue of said estate has become, and is, the property of your orator and the other heirs-at-law of the said James Rush, deceased, and that the said Henry J. Williams is holder thereof, to their use.
