

TAKE YOUR GUN AND GO, JOHN.

H. T. MERRILL.

INTRODUCTION.

1. Don't stop a mo - ment to think, John, Our
 2. I've heard my grand - sire tell, John, He 3. The ar - my's short of blankets, John, Then coun - try calls, then go, Don't fear for me nor the chil - dren, John, I'll fought at Bun - ker Hill, He count - ed all his life and wealth His take this hea - vy pair, I spun and wove them when a girl, And