

GETTING THE LAST SQUEAK OUT OF THE BRITISH LION.
 JOHN BULL—"WHY, WHAT'S THE MATTER, CARPENTER? IT DON'T SEEM TO ROAR GOOD!"
 CARPENTER PAM—"WELL, SIR, THE FACT IS, IT'S PRETTY MUCH WORN OUT!"

A POWERFUL DEFENCE.
 JUSTICE—"So, young man, you've been talking Secesh in the street."
 YOUNG SWELL—"No, sir—I deny it—I merely said that Abe Lincoln ought to be hung, and that Jeff Davis was perfectly right! That's all I said!"

CAMERON. "Good-by, Welles! I'm off for Russia! There's too much talk of Hanging here to suit me!"

OCCUPATION OF FLORENCE—SOUTH CAROLINIAN GARRISON.
 GENTLEMAN (apologetically)—"I was born intended to fear, and I don't desert my post!"
