LOAN MILITARY DEFENCE OF THE STATE.

$675,000.

THE BANK OF THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLI-NA is the Agent of the State to effect the Loan. The Bonds to be issued are for sums of $60, $100 and $50, each, bearing an interest of seven per cent, payable annually at the State Treasury, and the principal is re-deemable in $168, $150 and $157.

annually at the State Treasury, and the principal is redeemable in 1888, 1875 and 1872.

Subscriptions for the Loan will be received by the Bank in Charleston and its Branches, and by all the Banks in the State. They will also be received by the Banks in the State. They will also be received by the Banks in the Court in the several Districts of the State.

When the subscriptions are paid to the Bank of the State the Bonds will be delivered.

The Bonds are made for small amounts to give an opportunity for small subscriptions. It is expected that at the next session of the Logislature the Bonds will be souverted into Stock.

The purpose of this Loan presents an appeal to the patriotism of the people, which must secure its being promply taken up. It is needless to enlarge on the momentous consequences dependent on the prompt completion of the Loan. Apart from considerations of patriotism, the Bonds present the most advantageous investment of money which can bemade.

The interest is large, and the security superior to any other that can be offered.

The citizens of Charleston and of the State are called upon to come forward promptly and take up the Loan.

On our arrival at the outskirts of Baufort the orator of the day advanced towards us, hat in hand. Being entirely alone two mers of the 7th Connecticut Regiment were deputed to support him, as a matter of ctiquette. His speech did credit to his head as well as to his heart. A Game of Bluff, is it?

So the call by the President, oh, veracious Sonthern correspondent, is thought to be a bluff, is it! Ha! Ha! Have yoa heard the blast of the Northern bugle yet, or do you still hear only the slogan of the Heroid! Are you prepared now to learn that forbearance is not cowardice? The people are up! the great pulse of the North throbs with noble anger, and half a million voices answer back in a trumpet shout the call of the Union leader. In the vocabulary of the "game of Brag," a game of cards well-known to the South, do they not know the "bullet" always outranks the "bragger."

Present and Future.

Know all men by these presents: that I, John L. Dix, (no relation to the rebel "Dixie") knowing that the feeling excited in the breasts of our brave Union army by the combination of colors known as red, white and red, are by no means agreeable, do hereby, by virtue of the authority vested in me, by His Majesty Abraham 1st, require and command all police officers of the city of Baltimore in the pay of His Majesty's government to suppress and cause to disappear all substances, whether in the heavens above, or in the earth beneath, or in the waters under the earth, bearing the said combination of rebel colors. All babies having red, white and red stockings on will be sent to Fort Lafavette. All houses built of red brick and white mortar, must be removed, or painted red, white and blue, in alternate stripes. All water-melons must be painted blue on the rind; and all mint candy, and barber's poles so colored are forbidden. All red and white cows are required to change their spots or take the oath of allegiance. Red and white variegated flowers must be altered to include blue. All white persons having red hair and moustaches or whiskers are hereby warned to have-the one or the other dyed blue. No sun-rises or sun-sets which exhibit such combinations will be permitted, on pain of suppression. Persons are forbidden to drink red and white wines alternately. His Majesty is, however, graciously pleased to make an exception in favor of red noses, these last being greatly in vogue among Federal officers, and additional lustre having recently been shed upon such noses, by one of my former predecessors in this command.

Done at the Baltimore Bastile, this 4th day of September, the 1st year of Abraham's glorious and peaceful reign.

(Signed),

JOHN L. DIX, Maj. Gen.
