Conditions Governing Access

This collection is open for research use.

Immediate Source of Acquisition

These are the institutional records of the Library Company of Philadelphia, and are the result of the work of the staff, trustees, directors, readers, and all other constituencies involved in its operations.

Accession numbers are noted in the finding aid either after folder titles or after volume numbers, as appropriate. Materials found in the collection and accessioned by the archivist during processing have been assigned accession numbers as part of either 12482.F or 12489.F.

Processing Information

Materials in this collection that date from 1731 through 1881 were part of the Library Company Papers Project: Archiving and Preserving Early American History. Papers Project processing and digitization were made possible through a generous grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities: Democracy demands wisdom. Any views, findings, conclusions, or recommendations expressed in this resource do not necessarily represent those of the National Endowment for the Humanities.
