Subseries 4C. Circulation Records, 1781-1881, undatedScope and Contents

This subseries includes the Library Company's limited circulation records from its first 150 years. The loan slips and loan books list titles of books, with names of borrowers written on the recto of each slip. Borrowers' signatures on the fronts of slips are sometimes cut out, possibly because the material(s) had been returned.

Items of interest in this subseries include 1787 correspondence from the Secretary of the U. S. Constitutional Convention (Box 25, Folder 7) thanking the directors for the use of the library; correspondence from Charles Willson Peale (Box 25, Folders 13 and 15) requesting to borrow works as he prepared his own catalog; and correspondence from several printers asking to borrow works so they could print their own editions of the works (Box 25, Folders 20-23).
