

Philadelphia 5th Sept 1805
 W. L. Poulson,

Sir, Be good enough to communicate, at your next meeting, the following to the board of Directors of the Library—

Having transgress'd the rules of the library (from ignorance) in borrowing a Book from Mr Plowman, a share-holder, & having cut it up without his knowledge, we make the following offer, as a recompence, for so doing, & assure you you shall not have reason to complain of us again— We will replace it by an Edition of the same kind, which we have written to Europe for, we will give an American Edition in 5th Vol. Octavo, with a Map of Ireland, in the last Vol. not in the english edition, the first of which is now before you, and should the board think proper to fine us we will pay it with cheerfulness— As the want of the remainder of the Edition would tend to injure us much, in consequence of delay, we have to solicit it, & hope our solicitation will be complied with particularly, as it was a transgression of ignorance, & not done intentionally.

D. L. O

We are Sir

Your Mo. Ob. Servants

Wm. J. McLaughlin
Barth. Graves.
