Philad. Nov. 2. 1808

Gentlemen

Researches in the Loganian Library enable me to assert that it contains treasures of knowledge more valuable than ~~are~~ ^{as} estimated by the Public, and even beyond the belief of some more distinguished literary characters, that have not made an enquiry their particular object. Wishing to give my aid in rendering these treasures more accessible, I offer my service, without any desire of compensation; and shall be ready to give a species of Lectures, from the beginning of December, til the end of March, or, perhaps, later, once, or twice a week, if it is agreeable to You.

My intention is to point out, in particular things of the greatest ubility, among which medical subjects will have a great proportion.

With all due respect I have
