

Capital Stock of the Logan Library-

Ground rents in Bucks County, left by James Logan Esquire, now payable by Samuel Ingham, Richard Currier and Hugh Ely, Thirty five Pounds Sterling.

Exchange 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ is in dollars. 2592. 67

A Bond and Mortgage of Thomas Hale. 2266. 67

Five Thousand dollars of 8 ff Cent Stock. 5000. 0

in all,

9859. 34

Nine thousand Eight hundred and fifty Nine dollars. 34

100

and about four thousand volumes of books.

Besides the above ground rents, James Logan left The Institution, a Lot of ground at the corner of sixth and Walnut Street, which the Directors sold for Seven hundred pounds, and about Thirty six hundred volumes of valuable Books.

May 2. 1808.

Errors Excepted.

SAM^l. Coates. tr.