

Degree of Danger. Other members would rather, as myself, rather subscribe more annually for increasing the stock of books, than expose to any hazard a treasure so valuable ~ and of which one part could not even be restored by money: as various books in the Loganian Library.

Gentlemen, no surmise of neglect in your important charge. but a well intended general caution is the reason of this address, from your most hble servt

Nov. 5' 1807. Nich. Collin