will furnish them for the present.

At the meeting on Thursday week, it was again suggested that it would be advisable for the Committee to procure a legal opinion as to the mode of procedure & the difficulties inherent in the matter in order to enable them to come to a conclusion as to the expediency of making a sale to Coryell - Mr. C. G. Galt's name was suggested. It was left for the Committee to act in the matter if they deemed it proper with the expectation that you would consult with the counsel & convey your own views.

I am very sorry to find that you have not been able to come to the city yet & now write to know what you think had better be done.

Very truly
Yours
