

The Treasurer announced the decease of Abner C. Logan Esquire the only surviving Trustee of the family.

Gustavus George Logan Esq. now the eldest male representative of the family and as such a ~~member~~ Trustee of the Institution appeared and took his seat at the Board and in accordance with the power reserved by the Deed of Settlement and Act of Assembly uniting the Loganean Library with the Library Company of Philadelphia appointed his brother John Dickinson Logan M.D. and his brother in law Thomas Forrest Betton M.D. as Co-Trustees of the Loganean Library

At a stated meeting of the Trustees
August 3. 1854

Present Messrs. Gibson
Smith

The Treasurer Sec. & Librarian

An Order No 121 was drawn on the Treasurer in favor of Lloyd P. Smith for $125.45 to pay himself three months salary as Librarian. $ 50.00
And H.C. Baird books. 44.95
R. Rae Ho Stationery 26.00
J A Browne books 3.00
Acad. Nat Sciences 1.50
$ 125.45

The following were presented for which the Secretary was directed to thank the several donors

Colonial Records	10 vols	from Legislature Penni
Penn' Archives	14 "	" "
5 th Report N. Y. Almshouse	"	E. B. Crown