

to Harlan. whose judgment of values of Real Estate, I consider excellent - to go and see the property it is I think a good and valuable section as they say - not far from Christ Church. The purchase of a ground rent ordinarily has to pay the considerable expenses. Harlan would at least draw a deed to us, and save us that expense - I have told Harlan to call on Woodlee - and tell him what he thinks of it - if there is any money to spare. after the investment in the ground rent; and in this
