

Extract from the Minutes of a meeting of the ^{Directors} Trustees of the Loganian Library ^{Co. of Philadelphia} held February 27 1863

The following Preamble and Resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, the deed from James Logan to Jacob Dean dated the 26 day of May 1747 recorded in 1 Duques County in Deed Book A 25 p 197 contains the following clause "And the said Jacob Dean his heirs or assigns shall within the first twenty one years of the said term clear no more than three fifth parts of the said Tract of land and forever thereafter clear no more than three fourth parts of the said tract of land hereby granted, and the other one fourth part thereof shall be left for a supply of fencing and firing after the other timber shall be insufficient and shall not destroy or waste any timber excepting what is necessary for clearing as aforesaid, nor shall the land so cleared after the first two years from the time of the first clearing be impoverished by ploughing oftener than once in three years for any sort of grain (wheat and Indian corn excepted)"

And the Directors of the Library Company of Philadelphia in trust for the Logan-ian Library have been informed that the owners of the said tract of land in the proceedings for the revaluation of the same have alleged that the above recited restrictions di-
