

11. Page XXVII of First Supplement - Line 8.
In Law Book IV the spelling is: bye laws.
12. Page XXVII of First Supplement - Line 16.
In Law Book IV the spelling is: agreeable.
13. Page XXVII of First Supplement - Line 20.
In Law Book IV the language is: "And be it enacted" etc.
14. Page XXVII of First Supplement - Line 27.
In Law Book IV the language is: "then the eldest heir male in the female shall" etc.
15. Page XXVII of First Supplement - Last phrase of the last paragraph.
In Law Book IV the language is: "in the name of the Library Company of Philadelphia."

I secured from the Department of State, at Harrisburg, a photostatic copy of the Act as it appears, in Pengland, in L.B. IV at page 311. The photostat was not of the "enrolled bill" (i.e. the original act) but of a Pengland copy thereof. Most but ^{not all} some of the ^{various} ~~errors~~ ^{noted} ~~errors~~ ^{above} appear ^{a/so} in the Act as ~~it~~ printed at page 223 of Volume XIV of Statutes at Large of Pennsylvania, 1682-1801, as published by the State Printer in 1909.

