

NATIONAL STATISTICS.

ARRANGED BY M. J. GREENE.

Your Union ought to be considered as a main prop of your liberty, and that the love of one ought to endear to you the preservation of the other.—Ex. Washington's Farewell Address.

NATIONAL BATTLE CRY.

BY M. J. G.

Let the sons of freedom rouse,
In a just and righteous cause,
Men to battle in their might,
For the love of human right,
'Neath the banner of the free,
Striking for God and liberty.

Foremost in the fearful strife
Let her loyal sons be found,
Battling for a nation's life,
With their country's banner crown'd;
And the watchword of the free
Shall be death or victory.

By our mighty struggles o'er,
By our glory and our power,
For the love of man and heaven

Let the traitors' strength be riven,
And our blood-bought land set free,
Sacred to God and liberty.

Freemen, grave on these walls of time,
Record of a deed sublime—
Rebellion's might or treason's power,
All can brook the trying hour,
Where the brave and free
Battle for God and liberty.

Be like a band of brothers, join
Heart to heart and hand to hand.
As martyrs slain or victors crown'd,
Struggling for our natal land—
Till the Nation's song shall be
Union and liberty.
