

dated October 21, 1633. 10. An Account of the Saxon Lord Longueville, who was killed by the Danes, and of his Monument at Overton Longueville, in Huntingdonshire; by Bishop Kennet. 11. A remarkable Account of the Body of some great Person dug up at Southwell, March 17, 1717. 12. Sir Thomas Powys his Epitaph; by Matthew Prior, Esq; 13. A Discourse on the ancient Divisions of the Night and the Day, as also on ancient Hours of Prayer, and the Names of each; intermixed with divers other Matters of Antiquity. 14. A Description of Burghley House, by Stanford; and of all the principal Paintings and other Rarities now to be seen there. With many other Memoirs, Letters, Wills and Epitaphs; amounting in all to above 150 curious Articles, all now first published from original Manuscripts. Vol. II. containing 1. The History and Antiquities of the Cathedral Church of Lincoln; by Bishop Saunderson, Sir William Dugdale, and others. 2. The History and Antiquities of the Isle of Man, by James Earl of Derby, beheaded at Bolton. 3. Memoirs of Richard Plantagenet, a natural Son of King Richard III. 4. The Life of that famous Grecian Mr. John Bois, one of the Translators of the Bible. 5. The Life of William Chappel, Bishop of Cork and Ross. 6. The Life of Mr. Arthur Wilson, the Historian. 7. The Triumphs of the Muses, or the grand Reception and Entertainment of Queen Elizabeth at Cambridge, in 1594, and at Oxon, in 1596. 8. Thomas Count Arundel's Apology for accepting the Honour of Comes Imperii, without the Queen's Leave. 9. The Scheme of a new University intended at Rippon, 1st James I. 10. A large Account of a Design laid by King Charles I. to escape from the Scots, and how prevented. 11. Colonel Whalley's Narrative of King Charles I. his Escape from Hampton-Court. 12. Many large and curious Memoirs of Dr. Michael Hudson (King Charles I. his beloved Chaplain) killed at Woodcroft House, in 1648. 13. A Diary of many private Passages at the Treaty of Newport, in the Isle of Wight, by Nicholas Oudart, Esq; then Secretary to King Charles I. 14. Particular Relations of the Murders of Doctor Derislaus, and Anthony Ascham, and of a like Design upon Agent Bradshaw. 15. A large Extract of Mr. Prothonotary Smith (the famous Book-Worm's) Obituary. 16. An Account of a remarkable Medal, struck in 1702, in Memory of Archbishop Laud. Both Volumes bound in one. By Francis Peck, M. A. London, 1735.

132. Monsieur de Thou's History of his own Time. Translated from the Geneva Edition of 1620, by Bernard Wilson, M. A.

