

See of Rome, to the present Time. By Archibald Bower, Esq; heretofore publick Professor of Rhetorick, History, and Philosophy, in the Univerfities of Rome, Fermo, and Macerata, and in the latter Place Counsellor of the Inquisition. 3 Vols. 2d Edition. London, 1749.

46. A Collection of Scarce and Valuable Traëts, on the most interesting and entertaining Subjects; but chiefly such as relate to the History and Constitution of these Kingdoms, selected from an infinite Number in Print and Manuscript, in the Royal, Cotton, Sion, and other publick, as well as private Libraries; particularly that of the late Lord Somers. Revised by eminent Hands. 12 Vols. London, 1748.

47. The Miscellaneous Works of the Reverend and learned Conyers Middleton, D. D. Principal Librarian of the University of Cambridge. Containing all his Writings except the Life of Cicero; many of which were never before published, with a complete Index to the whole. 4 Vols. London, 1725.

48. Miscellaneous Traëts. By Conyers Middleton, D. D. never before published. To which are added, some scarce Pieces of the same Author that were printed in his Lifetime. London, 1752.

49. A Free Inquiry into the Miraculous Powers, which are supposed to have subsisted in the Christian Church, from the earliest Ages through several successive Centuries. By which it is shewn, that we have no sufficient Reason to believe, upon the Authority of the primitive Fathers, that any such Powers were continued to the Church after the Days of the Apostles. By Conyers Middleton, D. D. 3d Edition. London, 1749.

50. A Review of the Works of the Royal Society of London; containing Animadversions on such of the Papers as deserve particular Observation, in eight Parts, under the several Heads of Arts, Antiquities, Medicine, Miracles, Zoophytes, Animals, Vegetables, and Minerals. By John Hill, M. D. London, 1751.

51. A new Method of Chymistry; including the Theory and Practice of that Art, laid down on Mechanical Principles, and accommodated to the Uses of Life; the whole making a clear and rational System of Chymical Philosophy. To which is prefixed a Critical History of Chymistry and Chymists, from the Origin of the Art to the present Time. Written by the very learned H. Boerhaave, Professor of Chymistry, &c. in the University of Leyden, and Member of
