

STORY:— Two men who had to go to work early in the morning were disturbed by a boarder overhead pacing the floor. They could sleep no longer, so dressed and knocked at his door. He explained that he had a large bill to pay a Mr. Jones in the morning, and could not sleep as he was unable to meet it. They asked if he had tried every honorable way to get the money, to which he replied in the affirmative. One of the men below responded: "WELL, YOU FOOL, GO TO BED AND LET JOE WORK."
