

who reside at the distance of seven miles or upwards, are permitted to have books one week longer than the above mentioned times. For all books so lent, he shall take a note, payable to the company, for double the value, as nigh as he can estimate, of the book or set of books to which they belong, conditioned to return the same, undefaced, within the time above mentioned; at the expiration of which (unless application has been made by another member for the same books, and the Librarian requested to take a memorandum thereof) the borrower may, on producing the book to the Librarian, renew his note for the like time.

III. Every person, not being a member, who shall hire a book, &c. shall first give a note for double the value thereof, in the same manner, and be subject to the same regulations, as a member; and shall also deposit, as security, in the hands of the Librarian, double the value of such book or books; but if the book or books should belong to a set, then such person shall deposit treble the value of the volume or volumes which he shall so take out, and shall pay, for the use of the library, for

Folios one shilling,	} per week, and no smaller sums although the books may be returned within the week, Quartos nine pence,
Octavos and Duodecimos
six-pence

IV. Every member or other person who shall neglect to return the book or books, within the time specified in his note, shall, for such neglect, pay to the Librarian, for the use of the library, (besides the hire, where the book is not taken out by virtue of a share) four-pence for each time the library is afterwards opened for letting out books: and if not returned, undefaced, within one month from the expiration of the time limited in the note, the fines and hire accruing thereupon shall be doubled; and if not so returned within three months from the same period, the note or deposit money shall be forfeited to the company.