

compromised and adapted in order to achieve their visions. Mary Norris Dickinson is documented in two volumes: one of letters and one of poems.

Preferred Citation note

[Description and date of item], [Box and folder number], John Dickinson papers, 1676-1885, Library Company of Philadelphia.