
THE PREFACE
TO THIS EDITION.

OUR Authors are so well known, that the Reader need only be informed of what has been attempted in this Edition, of which he may take the following Account.

1. The Text of the Authors has been preserved without the least Variation, and though the Publisher found himself engaged to remark a Mistake or Two in my Lord Coke's Preface, yet he would not presume to incorporate his Observations, however just, with the least material Part of this Work; but hath placed them (as he ought) at the Bottom of the Page.

2. The Text has been carefully corrected from an infinite Number of Errors, and the Bookseller having procured the Original Rohan Edition of Littleton's Tenures, (which my Lord Coke so justly prized) the Publisher hath on all Occasions consulted it, and by Means thereof hath corrected many material Errors, and restored the genuine Reading in the 569th Section from an Error that has manifestly corrupted the Sense, and has nevertheless been
