

IIIa. Talks and Publications

"Value & Worth of Rare Books," address given at the Antiquarian Booksellers' Association of America 1961 February 7	109
"Philadelphia: The Renaissance City," Time 1982	110
"Fine Art of Selling Duplicates," The 1968 AB Bookman's Yearbook , twentieth anniversary edition 1968	111
"John Dickinson: Forgotten Patriot," address given at the Dinner of the Friends of John Dickinson Mansion, Inc. 1968	112
"James Logan's Correspondence with William Reading, Librarian of Sion College," Homage to a Bookman 1967	113
"James Logan, Bookman Extraordinary," Proceedings of the Massachusetts Historical Society 1968	114
"A Cultural Relic of Colonial America," Wilson Library Bulletin 1967 February	115
"A 235-Year-Old Library Moves 235,000 Books," Papers of the Bibliographical Society of America , volume 60 1966	116
"Should Libraries Bow or Stretch?," Pennsylvania Library Bulletin , volume 17, number 2 1961 Fall	117
"The Reconstruction of Benjamin Franklin's Library: An Unorthodox Jigsaw Puzzle," Papers of the Bibliographical Society of America , volume 56 1962	118