

such, who walk in uprightness before him : and thus our conversation ended.

On the fourteenth day of the fifth month I was at Camp-Creek monthly-meeting, and then rode to the mountains up James-River, and had a meeting at a friend's house ; in both which I felt sorrow of heart, and my tears were poured out before the Lord, who was pleased to afford a degree of strength by which way was opened to clear my mind amongst friends in those places. From thence I went to Fork-Creek, and so to Cedar-Creek again ; at which place I now had a meeting ; here I found a tender seed : and as I was preserved in the ministry to keep low with the truth ; the same truth in their hearts answered it, that it was a time of mutual refreshment from the presence of the Lord. I lodged at James Standley's, father of William Standley, one of the young men who suffered imprisonment at Winchester last summer, on account of their testimony against fighting ; and I had some satisfactory conversation with him concerning it. Hence I went to the Swamp-meeting, and to Wayanoke-meeting ; and then crossed James-River, and lodged near Burleigh. From the time of my entering Maryland I have been much under sorrow, which of late so increased upon me, that my mind was almost overwhelmed ; and I may say with the psalmist, " in my distress I called upon the Lord, and cried to my God ;" who, in infinite goodness, looked upon my affliction, and in my private
