His visit, in company with Samuel Eastburn, to Long-Island, Rhode-Island, Boston, &c. in New-England — Remarks on the slave-trade at Newport, and his exercise on that account; also on lotteries — Some observations on the island of Nantucket.

HAVING, for some time past, felt a sympathy in my mind with friends Eastward, I opened my concern in our monthly-meeting; and, obtaining a certificate, set forward on the seventeenth day of the fourth month, in the year 1760, joining in company, by a previous agreement, with my beloved friend Samuel Eastburn. We had meetings at Woodbridge, Rahaway and Plainfield; and were at their monthly-meeting of ministers and elders in Rahaway. We laboured under some discouragement; but, through the invisible power of truth, our visit was made reviving to the lowly minded, with whom I felt a near unity of spirit, being
