We crossed from the east end of Long-Island to New-London, about thirty miles, in a large open boat; while we were out, the wind rising high, the waves several times beat over us, that to me it appeared dangerous; but my mind was, at that time, turned to Him, who made and governs the deep, and my life was resigned to him: and as he was mercifully pleased to preserve us, I had fresh occasion to consider every day as a day lent to me; and felt a renewed engagement to devote my time, and all I had, to Him who gave it.

We had five meetings in Narraganset; and went thence to Newport on Rhode-Island.
