

have renewed cause to bow in reverence before the Lord, who, by the powerful extendings of his humbling goodness, opened my way amongst friends, and made the meetings (I trust) profitable to us. And the winter following, I joined friends on a visit to friends families, in some part of our meeting; in which exercise, the pure influence of divine love, made our visits reviving.

On the fifth day of the fifth month, 1768, I left home, under the humbling hand of the Lord, having obtained a certificate, in order to visit some meetings in Maryland; and to proceed without a horse looked clearest to me. I was at the quarterly-meetings at Philadelphia and Concord; and then went on to Chester river; and crossing the Bay with friends, was at the yearly-meeting at West-River: thence back to Chester-River; and taking a few meetings in my way, proceeded home. It was a journey of much inward waiting; and as my eye was to the Lord, way was, several times, opened to my humbling admiration, when things had appeared very difficult.

In my return, I felt a relief of mind, very comfortable to me; having, thro' divine help, laboured in much plainness, both with friends selected, and in the more publick meetings: so that (I trust) the pure witness, in many minds, was reached.

The eleventh day of the sixth month, 1769. Sundry cases have happened of late years,
