

the sea-faring life no further, than that spirit, which leads into all truth, attends us in our proceedings.

C H A P. XII.

His attending the yearly-meeting in London ; and after it, proceeding towards Yorkshire, visiting several quarterly and other meetings in the counties of Hertford, Warwick, Oxford, Nottingham, York, and Westmoreland ; and thence again into Yorkshire, and to the city of York ; with some instructive thoughts and observations, and letters on divers subjects — His bearing of the decease of William Hunt ; and some account of him — His sickness at York ; and end of his pilgrimage there.

ON the eighth day of the sixth month, 1772, we landed at London ; and I went straightway to the yearly-meeting of ministers and elders, which had been gathered (I suppose) about half an hour.

In this meeting, my mind was humbly contrite : in the afternoon, the meeting of
