

business opened ; which, by adjournments, held near a week. — In these meetings, I often felt a living concern for the establishment of friends in the pure life of truth : and my heart was enlarged in the meeting of ministers, meeting of business, and in several meetings of publick worship ; and I felt my mind united in true love, to the faithful labourers now gathered at this yearly-meeting.

On the fifteenth day of the month, I left London, and went to a quarterly-meeting at Hertford.

The first day of the seventh month. I have been at quarterly-meetings at Sherrington, Northampton, Banbury and Shipton ; and had sundry meetings between : my mind hath been bowed under a sense of divine goodness manifested amongst us ; my heart hath been often enlarged in true love, both amongst ministers and elders, and in publick meetings ; that through the Lord's goodness, I believe it hath been a fresh visitation to many, in particular to the youth.

The seventeenth day of the month. Was this day at Birmingham : have been at meetings at Coventry, Warwick, in Oxfordshire, and sundry other places ; have felt the humbling hand of the Lord upon me ; and thro' his tender mercies find peace in the labours I have gone through.

The twenty-sixth day of the month. I have continued travelling northward, visiting
