

ing meetings : was this day at Nottingham ; which, in the forenoon especially, was, thro' divine love, a heart-tendering season : next day had a meeting in a friend's house with friends children and some friends ; this, thro' the strengthening arm of the Lord, was a time to be thankfully remembered.

The second day of the eighth month, and first of the week, was this day at Sheffield, a large inland town : have been at sundry meetings last week ; and feel inward thankfulness for that divine support, which hath been graciously extended to me.

The ninth day of the month, and first of the week, was at Rushworth : have lately passed through some painful labour ; but have been comforted, under a sense of that divine visitation, which I feel extended toward many young people.

The sixteenth day of the month, and first of the week, was at Settle : it hath of late been a time of inward poverty ; under which, my mind hath been preserved in a watchful tender state, feeling for the mind of the holy Leader, and find peace in the labours I have passed through.

On enquiry, in many places, I find the price of rye about five shillings, wheat about eight shillings, per bushel ; oatmeal twelve shillings for an hundred and twenty pounds ; mutton from three-pence to five-pence per pound ; bacon, from seven-pence to nine-pence ; cheese, from four-pence to six-pence ;
butter,
