

in one; with which I feel unity: I having, in some measure, felt truth lead that way amongst friends in America; and have found, my dear friend, that in these labours all superfluities in our own living, are against us. I feel that pure love toward thee, in which there is freedom."

"I look at that precious gift bestowed on thee, with awfulness before Him who gave it: and feel a care, that we may be so separated to the gospel of Christ, that those things which proceed from the spirit of this world, may have no place amongst us."

"Thy friend,

"John Woolman."

I rested a few days, in body and mind, with our friend Jane Crosfield; who was once in America: was, on the sixth day of the week, at Kendal in Westmoreland; and at Greyrig meeting the thirtieth day of the month, and first of the week.

I have known poverty of late; and been graciously supported to keep in the patience: and am thankful, under a sense of the goodness of the Lord toward those that are of a contrite spirit.

The sixth day of the ninth month, and first of the week, was this day at Counterside; a large meeting-house, and very full; and thro' the opening of pure love, it was a strengthen-
