

CONSIDERATIONS

W E C R O S

Recommended to the Trustees of Christ-ianity of every Denomination.

First printed in the year 1734.

INTRODUCTION

CUSTOMS, manners, and opinions, are the result of human nature, and are not the result of divine revelation. It is the duty of the Christian to be conformable to the will of God, and not to the customs of men. The Christian should be guided by the word of God, and not by the traditions of men. The Christian should be free from all yokes, and should be able to stand firm in the face of all opposition. The Christian should be able to resist the temptations of the world, the flesh, and the devil.
The Christian should be able to keep his heart pure, and his conscience clear. The Christian should be able to love God, and his neighbor as himself. The Christian should be able to bear the cross, and follow Christ to glory.