

CONSIDERATIONS

ON THE

TRUE HARMONY

OF

MANKIND;

AND HOW IT IS TO BE MAINTAINED.

C H A P. I.

On serving the Lord in our outward employments.

UNDER the humbling dispensations of the Father of mercies, I have felt an inward labour for the good of my fellow creatures, and a concern that the holy spirit, which alone can restore mankind to a state of true harmony, may with singleness of heart be waited for and followed.

I trust there are many under that visitation, which, if faithfully attended to, will make them quick of understanding in the fear of the Lord, and qualify with firmness to be true patterns of the christian life, who in living and walking may hold forth an invitation to others, to come out of the entanglements of the spirit of this world. And
